MEMORANDUM FOR DIRECTOR, FBIS

SUBJECT: Japanese Military History Exchange

I have encouraged an exchange of military concepts between the U.S. Army and the Japanese Ground Self-Defense Forces. As part of this program, a conference will be held in Tokyo in July. To support this conference, it is necessary to translate some 259 pages of Russian and 80 pages of Japanese language material into English by the first week in June. I realize that this is a short deadline and may necessitate rescheduling of work already in progress, but I would appreciate your assistance in making this conference a success. My office will reimburse JPRS for the cost of translation. I have asked [redacted] to work out the necessary arrangements. He can be reached at [redacted]
